Member Product & Service Sponsor

This is a unique way to showcase your business at the event. We have already have many food and beverage members participating but have many other member businesses looking to participate. Do you have a unique product or business service that you want to showcase during this gala event? We are interested in speaking to event decorating, seating & tables, transportation, video, janitorial and many others ways for you to participate and be seen by all attendees.

If you are interested in being a sponsor at the financial level please go directly to our event registration page via our web site (www.mountolivechambarnj.com) and select the level you are interested in and pay via credit or debit card. We will contact you for your business logo and information.

Interested service and product sponsors please contact Harry Browne, President of MOACC at president@mountolivechambarnj.com or call 908.979.0993.
